by Mrs.
G. L. Richardson
Chairman of Mayer's Bureau
Com.

Mrs. George L. Richardson, Chairman of the Mayer's Bureau Com. since April, 1908, told how each year we had reduced the mortgage, and the assistance given by Mrs.
Mary Gentry, woman, and the last effort had been under the inspiration and help of Mrs. Richardson. Her generous offer to lend $500.00 if the Chapter would raise the same amount.

Mrs. Richardson stated that not only the last dollar of our indebtedness had been wiped out, but we had a balance.

Balance of $125.50 to be turned into the Treasury of the Chapter.
 Of the original sum covered by the Mortgage, Mrs. Morrison has given 75.00 and 12.52 has been raised by the Chapter.
 Mrs. Thompson moved that to report to the chairman of the Ways & Means Com. be accepted with a rising vote of thanks, seconded by Mrs. Hove & unanimously voted.

Mrs. Morrison then spoke saying "that ever since becoming a member of the Chapter that she had had a great desire to see that Mortgage paid, it had been accomplished through the co-operation of the members of the

Then followed the "Burning of the Mortgage" The Regent & the Chairman of the Ways & Means Com. Mrs. Richardson assisted in the cremation and the match was applied by Mrs. Morrison and soon reduced to ashes.

The next speaker was Mrs. H. M. Thompson, Regent when the Spalding House was purchased, in closing she gave the following tribute to Mrs. Mary Greeley Morrison:-

Tribute to Mary
Mary E.
Medwin

This has been brought about quite as much by the quiet, persistent determination of Mrs. Mary Emily Morrison, that it could be done, as by her numerous gifts which gave us the courage to start on what seemed an almost impossible undertaking. And so one who stands by her purpose with the same unflinching courage as did her ancestor at Bunker Hill: with an eye as keen and a brain as sharp as once New England forebears, and with a voice ringing as clear and true in the night as she sees it, as that of her mother, present to her, bring this greeting.

May the world deal as generously and kindly with me as you have dealt, with me, and may you love, respect and honor help me to bear the burden like George to the end.

The exercises closed with the singing of "Praise God from Whom all Blessings flow" A social hour followed, with refreshments served under the direction of Miss Alice Perry, chairman of the committee.
Com. had charge, assisted by the heads of the ten leaders of the groups of the Mortgage Com. as follows:

Mr. Charles Horne, Miss Alice Morrison, Mrs. H. M. Thompson, Mrs. Robert Howard,
